MEDICINAL.

The young mother's delight and joy in her beautiful baby is always accompanied by more or less care and solicitude, and a certain degree of strain on her physical resources. She needs all the strengthening and sustaining help which is possible to be obtained, in order not to fall a victim to the organic weakness incident to maternity.

The grandest help in the world for expectant mothers, and the raising mothers is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts health and strength directly to the delicate organs and nerve-centers involved in motherhood.

It renders the coming of baby safe and almost free from pain. It transmits constitutional health and hardihood to the child; promotes the secretion of abundant nourishment, and fortifies the mother with permanent vitality.

The marvelous effects of this medicine are more fully described in the chapter of Dr. Pierce's thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a book which every woman ought to read. A paper-bound copy will be sent absolutely free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the mere cost of mailing. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. A handsome cloth-bound copy for thirty-one stamps.

W. R. Malcom, of Knobel, Clay County, Arkansas, writes: "Since I last wrote you we have had a baby girl born to us. My wife took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and also your 'Favorite Prescription' all during the expectant period and until confinement. It makes an operation with the knife, which is painful, and often results in death unnecessary. Why endure this terrible disease? We put a written guarantee in each $1 box. No Cure, No Pay. 50c. and $1 a box, 6 for $5. Sent by mail. Samples free."

JAPANESE PILE CURE

OFFICERS AND PRIVATES.

[From the New York Sun of Yesterday.]

There came near being an unpleasant scene in camp to day. Private John Heigh of Company C, Fourteenth Regiment, who lives at 57 St. Mark's place, Brooklyn, received word to-day that his mother had a stroke of paralysis and was dying. His sister came to camp with a note from Dr. Charles Smith, in which he said that Mrs. Heigh's life might be prolonged if she could see her son. In great distress Heigh went to Col. Grant and asked permission to go home. He would not stay more than forty-eight hours, he said, and if the regiment moved before that time he would follow it at his own expense and join it as soon as possible. Col. Grant absolutely refused to let the man go home.

"Very well," said Heigh, "I shall go anyway. I have passed my examination and stand ready to fight for my country, but if my dying mother wants to see me she shall."

"Captain," said Col. Grant to Capt. Avery, the man's commander, "cut this man's buttons off; take away his stripes and have him drummed out of camp in disgrace."

When the regiment heard the story it revolved, in the event of Col. Grant sticking to his determination, to cheer Heigh out of camp. The drum and bugle corps resolved not to play the "Rogue's March," and Capt. Avery, after studying the regulations, decided that he had no authority to take the buttons and stripes from the man. So he went and shook hands with Heigh and gave him a suit of citizen's clothes, which the man donned. After the mustering in of the regiment the men gathered around Heigh's tent to see what had happened. They had made up their minds to carry the man who was supposed to be going out in disgrace and the picket lines on their shoulders and then send him off with a cheer. Col. Grant changed his mind about letting Heigh go home toward evening, much to the relief of his officers, who saw the drumming out developing into a triumphal march and Heigh into a hero instead of a disgraced man. Heigh will not return to camp. The position in which he was put led him to resign the moment he was informed that the requested leave of absence had been granted.

WHAT THE STUDENTS USED TO WEAR.

Among the engravings concerning students passed at a meeting of the board of visitors held at the University of Virginia on December 5, 1826, are the following:

"The dress of the students, where resident, shall be uniform and plain. The coat, waistcoat and pantaloons, of cloth of a dark gray mixture, at a price not exceeding $6 per yard. The coat shall be single-breasted, with a standing cape, and shirts of a moderate length with pocket flaps. The waistcoat shall be single-breasted, with a standing collar, and the pantaloons of the usual form. The buttons of each garment to be flat and covered with the same cloth. The pantaloons and waistcoat of this dress may vary with the season, the latter of which, when required by the season may be of white, the former of light brown cotton or linen. Shoes, with black gaiters in cold weather, and white stockings in warm weather, and in no case, shall boots be worn by them. The neck cloth shall be plain black, in the cold; white in the warm season. The hat round and black. The students shall wear this dress on the Sabbath, on examinations and public exhibitions in the University, and whenever they appear without its precincts. On all other occasions, within the precincts, they may wear a plain black gown, or a cheap frock coat. A suit cut of cloth of the color and price above described, may be worn, but shall not be substituted on the public occasions specified for the uniform coat first prescribed.

The form of the dress, in each article, shall be according to a model to be provided by the proctor under the direction of the executive committee, with conspicuous badges on the coat such as they shall prescribe.

He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Call at above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

S. C. P. Jones, Milesburg, Pa., writes: "I have used Dr. King's Little Early Risers ever since they were introduced here and must say I have never used any pills in my family during forty years of house keeping that have so satisfactory results as a laxative or cathartic. Charles G. Lendon.
